

“ABORTION IS OK”

Grid Pattern

DIY Pattern for pro-abortion artists & crafters

If you're reading this, we likely don't have to tell you that creating and sharing pro-abortion art ROCKS! Abortion art can help spread information about accessing abortion and share positive messaging to help destigmatize abortion. We love abortion art and we always want to see more of it!

Whatever your craft or artistic medium, this pattern is for you! We encourage you to use it as you see fit to create beautiful pro-abortion art, and we want to see it! Tag us on social media at @ShoutYourAbortion with your in-progress or completed works.

This is also a good time to say that all of SYA's messaging is YOURS to create with. Whether we've said it in an Instagram post or printed it on a T-shirt, you are always welcome to use our words to make DIY pro-abortion art. We hope this pattern inspires you to create all the pro-abortion art your heart desires!

We love you!

SOME NOTES:

This pattern is very large! Feel free to use just part of the pattern, pare it down or edit it to your liking, or remix it into something completely different, but still proportion!

This chart was designed on Stitch Fiddle, a platform that allows you to create your own grid pattern designs.

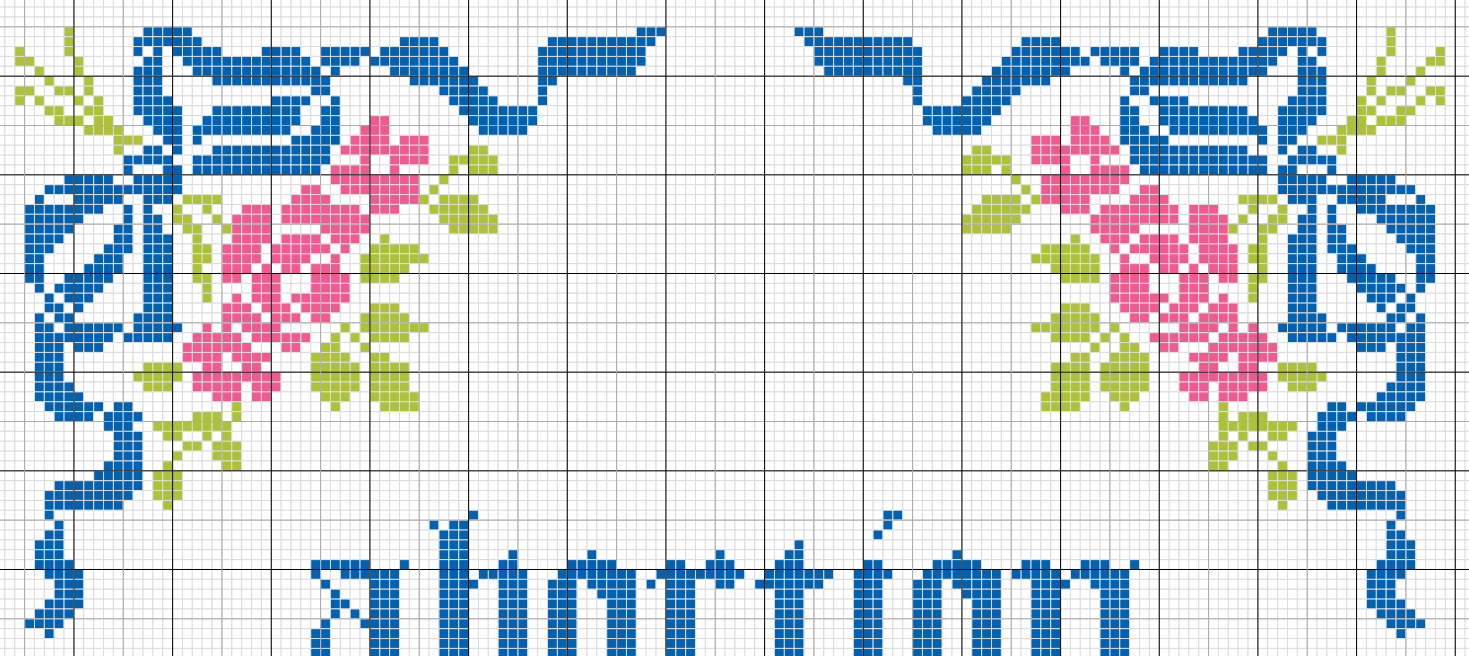

If you would like to view this chart online, scan the QR code. To make edits, select “create a copy of the chart”. This allows you to change the colors of your chart, isolate aspects of the design or add your own flair!
